

University of Oregon Department of Accounting Graduate Employee Positions

Application Process: Please email all materials to Dr. Clement's assistant at lcbmacc1@uoregon.edu. If applying for multiple positions, you must submit a separate application for each. To be considered for the Accounting scholarships, you must complete this online form.

Submission Materials: Complete this application form and submit it with the following documents, in PDF format:

- 1) an unofficial copy of your transcripts, including your most recent grades;
- 2) a one-page cover letter;
- 3) a one-page resume; and
- 4) one letter of recommendation addressing skills such as public speaking, handling conflict, working in teams, and maturity, addressed to Dr. Robin Clement, emailed to lcbmacc1@uoregon.edu. Note that this letter is different from the recommendation letters for the Master of Accounting program itself.

Candidate Requirements: To be considered for a GE position, you must have submitted a completed MAcc application. We will have two application rounds. If your MAcc application was submitted by March 15th, you can apply in the first round even if you have not received an official acceptance. Otherwise, an applicant must wait until Round 2 to apply. It is strongly encouraged to apply during Round 1.

The academic requirements for admission to the MAcc include a 3.0 overall cumulative GPA, a 3.0 accounting GPA, and a minimum 550 GMAT score. If you are currently a MAcc student, you must have a current UO cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Please contact Dr. Robin Clement at (541) 346-3295 or rclement@uoregon.edu, or drop by her office at 308A Peterson if you have any questions concerning this policy. If you have questions regarding the application process, please contact her assistant at lcbmacc1@uoregon.edu.

A. Graduate Teaching Fellow (GTF) in Accounting

Six positions open (1 or 2 terms)

Responsibilities: This Graduate Employee position is the teaching assistant for the Introduction to Accounting - II (ACTG 213) instructor. Responsibilities include attending the lectures of ACTG 213 and leading two one-hour lab sections each week. In these lab sections, the GTF reinforces the concepts from the instructor's lecture and helps students solve accounting problems. The GTF also provides support in grading and holds office hours for 4 hours each week to assist students.

Qualifications: This position is reserved for a student enrolled in the MAcc Program.

Checklist:

- Unofficial transcript including most recent grades
- One-page cover letter
- Resume
- One letter of recommendation addressing the candidate's qualifications for the 213 GTF positions

B. Master of Accounting Program Assistant

One position open (3 terms)

Responsibilities: This position is involved with assisting the director of the MAcc program with all aspects of MAcc recruiting (i.e., handling email and telephone contacts with applicants, scheduling and coordinating campus visits by prospective students, and representing the program at various recruiting events). The program assistant also manages all MAcc databases, plans several events, serves as Department liaison with current students, and promotes the 3+1 Accounting Pathway program.

Qualifications: This position is reserved for a student enrolled in the MAcc Program.

This position requires a high degree of initiative, the ability to work productively with a minimum of direction and guidance, independent follow-through, excellent oral and written communication skills, a good understanding of the program's features and needs, and scheduling flexibility. Candidates must be outgoing, attentive to detail, highly professional, knowledgeable about the program, and committed to its improvement.

Checklist:

- Unofficial transcript including most recent grades
- One-page cover letter answering the following questions:
 - Why are you interested in this position?
 - What event planning experience do you have?
 - What ideas do you have for enhancing the visibility of the MAcc program?
- Resume
- One letter of recommendation addressing the candidate's qualifications for the assistant position
