LUNDQUIST COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

---

Welcome to the 2020 Charles H. Lundquist College of Business commencement ceremony. It's not how any of us imagined it, but that doesn't mean it is any less significant for us and you—our innovative, determined, and resilient Class of 2020. On behalf of our faculty and staff, we are so honored to get to celebrate with you, even if we are not in the same room.

In a time of great uncertainty, I know this: the hard work and dedication you have shown in recent weeks and months, as well as throughout your college career, will serve you for the rest of your life. I urge you to harness this spirit of principled perseverance to go forth and build the world you want to see. Because it's yours now. Own it. Care for it. Make it better. It's what Ducks do.

Let's shout it from the rooftops: Congratulations Lundquist College of Business Class of 2020! Today's achievement marks the start of the rest of your life.

As you journey forward please keep in touch. We are so proud of this amazing class and look forward to seeing where each of your future paths take you.

CHARLES H. LUNDQUIST COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The Lundquist College of Business empowers an engaged community of students, faculty, staff, and stakeholders who create, apply, and disseminate business knowledge in order to make significant contributions to their professions, communities, and society.

An integral part of the University of Oregon's position as an elite research institution, the college boasts a world-class faculty that delivers a distinctive education combining an integrated understanding of business's role in society with hands-on experiences.

- Founded in 1993, the Warsaw Sports Marketing Center is the first sports industry program in the nation to be housed at a college of business.
- The Lillis Business Complex was the first certified environmentally friendly business school facility in the nation.
- The undergraduate business program's finance curriculum is certified by the prestigious Chartered Financial Analyst Institute's University Recognition Program, making it one of only 150 programs worldwide on this exclusive list.
- U.S. News & World Report's Best Business Schools 2020 placed the college's undergraduate business program 31st in that nation among public business schools and 50th overall out of more than 504 programs ranked.
- The Lundquist College of Business was first accredited in 1923, and its accounting program was accredited in 1989. Only 1.5 percent of the world's business schools are accredited in both business and accounting by AACSB International.
- Lundquist College of Business faculty members are among the most productive in the world, ranking 55th in the United States and 79th worldwide in the prestigious University of Texas–Dallas Top 100 Business School Research Rankings.
- Accounting faculty ranked first worldwide in publishing academic tax research over the past 12 years, according to a 2020 Brigham Young University study.

The Lundquist College of Business Class of 2020 includes 613 graduates from 10 countries and 27 states, 91 international students, and 324 Oregonians. Among the graduates, 384 earned a minor in a field outside of business, and 21 earned a certificate in global business.
