

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COMMENCEMENT

LUNDQUIST COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 2025

On behalf of all of the faculty and staff of the Charles H. Lundquist College of Business, it's an honor to welcome you to our 2025 commencement ceremony. Today, we gather to celebrate a tremendous achievement—one that reflects hard work, resilience, and an unyielding commitment to growth.

To our graduates: you've shown perseverance, curiosity, and determination through every challenge. These are the same qualities that will lift you as you take flight into your next chapter—whether that's launching a venture, shaping the future of finance, leading teams, driving sustainability, or uncovering insights through data. We're incredibly proud of everything you've accomplished.

To the families, friends, mentors, and supporters who helped make this moment possible—thank you. Your encouragement and care have helped these graduates spread their wings.

At the Lundquist College, we challenge students to think boldly and act with purpose. As you soar into the future, always remember: once a Duck, always a Duck. No matter how far you fly, you'll always have a place in our UO business community.

Congratulations, Class of 2025, and Go Ducks!

CHARLES H. LUNDQUIST COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The Lundquist College of Business empowers an engaged community of students, faculty, staff, and stakeholders who create, apply, and disseminate business knowledge in order to make significant contributions to their professions, communities, and society.

An integral part of the University of Oregon's position as a leading research institution, the college boasts a world-class faculty that delivers a distinctive education combining an integrated understanding of business's role in society with hands-on learning experiences.

- The Lillis Business Complex is the first certified environmentally friendly business school facility in the nation.
- Founded in 1993, the Warsaw Sports Business Center is the first sports industry program in the nation to be housed at a college of business.
- The college's finance curriculum is certified by the prestigious Chartered Financial Analyst Institute's University Recognition Program, making it one of only 150 programs worldwide on this exclusive list.
- U.S. News & World Report's Best Business Schools 2025 placed the college's undergraduate business program 31st in the nation among public business schools and 43rd overall out of more than 532 programs ranked.
- The Princeton Review placed the University of Oregon's undergraduate entrepreneurship program at #23 in the world—the largest leap (from 50 to 23) in the rankings of any school in the list. The college's graduate ranking stayed stable over the past year at #27 in the world.
- The Lundquist College of Business was first accredited in 1923, and its accounting program was accredited in 1989. Less than two percent of the world's business schools are accredited in both business and accounting by AACSB International.

The Lundquist College of Business undergraduate class of 2025 includes 756 graduates from 13 countries and 33 states, 21 international students, and 396 Oregonians. Among the graduates 389 earned a minor in a field outside of business, and six are military veterans.

FOLLOWING THE CEREMONY

Exiting the Arena

Guests are kindly requested to remain seated until all graduates have been escorted from Matthew Knight Arena. Guests will then be invited to exit the arena. Graduates will exit the building at a different location. If you have not made prior arrangements for a meeting location, please meet your graduate in the Lillis Business Complex at the reception. Commencement staff will be available to assist guests with directions.

Helpful Information

Personal Photography

Due to fire marshal restrictions, guests are not permitted on the floor of Matthew Knight Arena. Please remain seated to take photos. The UO campus offers many beautiful backdrops for graduation-day photos. We encourage you to take advantage of our beautiful campus to capture your graduation-day memories.

Flowers

Alpha Phi Omega (service fraternity) is selling flowers. The prices vary.

HONORING NATIVE PEOPLES AND LANDS

The University of Oregon is located on Kalapuya Ilihi, the traditional indigenous homeland of the Kalapuya people. Following treaties between 1851 and 1855, Kalapuya people were dispossessed of their indigenous homeland by the United States government and forcibly removed to the Coast Reservation in Western Oregon. Today, descendants are citizens of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon and the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon, and continue to make important contributions in their communities, at UO, and across the land we now refer to as Oregon.

We express our respect for all federally recognized tribal nations of Oregon. This includes the Burns Paiute Tribe; the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians; the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon; the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation; the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; the Coquille Indian Tribe; the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians; and the Klamath Tribes. We also express our respect for all other displaced Indigenous peoples who call Oregon home.
